

Statement of Walter Francis Fitzpatrick, III in extenuation of filed Notice of Challenge dated Monday, 24 May 2010

"By the pricking of my thumbs, something wicked this way comes"

-William Shakespeare
Macbeth

TIME FILED
2:58 AM / PM
JUN 28 2010
ARTHUR M. COOK
CIRCUIT COURT CLERK

I stand this day silent; an innocent man forced to this place against my will.

Oral accusations targeting me are not voidable; they are void! The government's sinister design is betrayed by the exposition of prejudicial and predatory conduct in plain view.

The government's criminal conduct is outrageous! No genuine issue is present!

Panic and frenzy clearly lay naked government deprecations and fiction designed to crush innocents perceived capable of disturbing the public tameness.

No written criminal complaint exists. There are no Sheriff's records or Police records. There is no narrative. I find no Grand Jury.

In America, in matters regarding the adversarial environment of a criminal Court, it remains a pesky constitutional command if maybe only a quaint American custom that the accuser be made known to the accused.

I have searched for my accuser. I do not find one!

No Judge can receive these tortured and manufactured verbal accusations. No Judge can advance these malicious, manufactured and mendacious musings. No Judge can read these unsustainable and unexamined lies out loud in public.

I stand this day silent; an innocent man forced to this place against my will. I make no answer! No one is permitted to answer in my name!

Walter Francis Fitzpatrick, III.
UNITED STATES NAVY RETIRED

COPY